

---

INSTRUCTIONS AND GENERAL INFORMATION

---

General Information

Form ABC-215 is used by on-sale licensees who hold an event permit (Type 77 license) to sell alcoholic beverages on adjacent property (Complete Sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 14 and 15).

- Acronyms or form numbers used in these instructions: B&P Business & Professions Code

Instructions

Type or print clearly in black or blue ink.

Licensee Name (Item 1) — List the name of the licensee. For a limited partnership, limited liability company, or a corporation, show the name of the entity.

Contact Person (Item 2) — Provide the name of the licensee or their authorized representative.

Contact Phone Number (Item 3) — Provide a phone number to reach the contact person if there are any questions.

Licensed Premises Address (Item 4) — Provide the location where the Type 77 license is issued.

Number of Days an “Adjacent Property” Event Held at this Location this Calendar Year (Item 14) — Limited to Four (4) Total Days per calendar year.

Local Law Enforcement Agency Approval Signature (Item 15) — All events on adjacent property require approval of the local law enforcement agency (Section 23399(c)). A signature from an authorized person of the Law Enforcement Agency must be obtained.

Licensee Signature — Only one signature for the licensee is needed on the form.

MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION

An event permit authorizes Type 41, 42, 47, 48, 49, 57, 71, 72, 78, and 87 licensees to sell alcoholic beverages for consumption on adjacent property (23399(b) B&P). The property must be secured and controlled by the licensee and not visible to the general public. A diagram of the property is required (Form ABC-253).

An event permit also authorizes Type 01 and Type 23 to sell alcoholic beverages for consumption on adjacent property which is operated by and for the manufacturer (Section 23399.65 B&P).

At all approved events, you may exercise only those privileges authorized by your license. You must comply with all provisions of the ABC Act. Violations may be grounds for suspension or revocation of your license or permit, or both, as though the violation occurred on the licensed