ABC, San Diego County Law Enforcement Task Force Arrest 205 Persons in Crackdown on Alcohol-related Problems

San Diego – On February 17, 2007, members of the San Diego County Law Enforcement Task Force on Youth Access to Alcohol along with investigators from the California Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, San Diego District Office, conducted a multi-agency alcohol enforcement operation that resulted in 205 arrests, most of the arrests involved misdemeanor citations for alcohol-related violations.

The operation consisted of 71 plain-clothes officers from 13 separate agencies who targeted alcohol-related violations including furnishing alcohol to minors, public drunkenness, fake identifications, minors in possession of alcohol and other charges such as fighting, unregistered kegs and narcotics violations.

The operation focused on alcohol-related violations during the annual Supercross event held at “Qualcomm Stadium” in the City of San Diego. During the operation, 150 people were cited for misdemeanors such as possessing fake identification, being a minor in possession of alcohol, minors consuming alcohol and furnishing alcohol to minors.
